Quebec Royal Giants
Of Montreal

AT ST. JOHNSBURY

On The Campus

Game Called at 4.15 P. M.

Admission 35 Cents

NOTE—The Quebec Royal Giants recently defeated the St. Johnsbury team to the score of 3 to 0. It was a pitcher's duel. Today the local boys are battling the ball. They are confident they can "get" to the Quebec Giant's twirler. If they do there will be a lively time at the Campus. This is a big game just before the home boys go to Sherbrooke. Give them a good send-off by attending the game and cheering for them.

A meeting was held of ladies of the Village Improvement Society Saturday with Mrs. John Ahern, to discuss the question of dances and dancing schools the coming winter. It was thought best not to conduct a dancing school, as there seems to be little call for a class now, but to continue the Friday evening dances as in the past, since they have become a welcome feature of our young people's social life. The dances will probably begin in October, and continue indefinitely, and the committee hope to provide good music, and a good clean, social time, which old and young can enjoy. They also plan to have several big balls, notably a Halloween, Thanksgiving, Washington and St. Patrick's balls, with specially interesting features.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Dexter and daughter, Dorothy, have gone to Boston and Lowell for a few days' motor trip.

SMITH-HARDY

Tuesday evening, Aug. 10, at 6.30 o'clock at Mountain View Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hardy, their daughter, Lorinda Stevens, was united in marriage to Howard Bert Smith of Bristol, Conn. The double ring service was used, and Rev. Chauncey A. Adams, pastor of the Congregational church officiated.

The ceremony was performed in an alcove, formed by evergreens, vines and flowers, on a corner of the lawn, in the presence of about 50 relatives and intimate friends.

The bride party entered the alcove to the strains of the bridal march, from Lohengrin, played by Miss Evelyn Brickett. Leading the bride party were six ushers, Emerson Libbey, Earle Coveny, Osman Hatch, Glen Crane, and Earle and Charles Hardy of Orleans, cousins of the bride. Then came the ring bearers, little Miss Martha McDonald and Master Arnold Bartlett. Following these came the six bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Davis, Miss Alice Hastings, Miss Gertrude Bryant of West Brookfield, Mass., Miss Gladys Thompson of South Ryegate, Miss Hallie Hardy of Cambridge, Mass., and Miss Mildred Hall of Barnet. After the bridesmaids came the maid of honor, Miss Rita Bole of East Hardwick, followed by the bride with her father who gave her in marriage. The bride party were met at the end of the alcove by the groom and best man, Austin Smith, brother of the groom.

The bride wore a gown of white georgette and a veil caught with white sweet peas and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas. Miss Bole wore pink georgette and a pink hat and carried pink roses. Three of the bridesmaids were dressed in pink or ruffled and wore pink lace hats and all carried pink and white sweet peas. The ring bearers were dressed respectively in pink and white and carried pink and white baskets containing the rings. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, and he gave the groom a pair of Masonic cuff links. The bride's gift to her maid of honor was a butterfly pendant, to each bridesmaid a bar pin and a lace pin to Miss Brickett. The groom gave his best man a gold watch, and to each usher a silver ver-sharp pencil.

At 7.30 a reception was given to about 300 friends of the families. The reception was held on the lawn which was lighted by electric lights with pink shades. Mrs. George Dole and Mrs. Albert Keller of Nashua, N. H., served ice cream and cake in the dining room which was decorated with pink and white streamers and sweet peas. They were assisted by the bridesmaids and ushers. All the rooms were decorated with sweet peas and the gifts which were numerous consisting of silver, cut glass, china, linen, pictures, and about $50 in money and several electrical household articles were displayed in the parlor.

Miss Vio S. Dole had charge of the guest book.

After being showered with confetti and rice, the bridal couple succeeded in eluding the crowd and escaped to a car which was waiting for them and were driven by Austin Smith to Hardwick where they spent the night. The following morning they went to a cottage on Lake Champlain where they are spending their honeymoon.

The bride's going away gown was an old blue silver tone suit with blue velvet and georgette hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home after Oct. 1st at Endee Manor, Bristol, Conn. Among those present at the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Miss Gladys from South Ryegate, Mrs. George Randall and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Kelley from Nashua, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hardy and two sons, Earle and Charles from Orleans, Miss Gertrude Bryant from West Brookfield, Mass., Miss Hallie Hardy from Cambridge, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. William Nute, Mr. and Mrs. John Finley and Mrs. Clifton Sanborn from St. Johnsbury, and Miss Rita Bole from East Hardwick.
